Dear Parents/Carers,

Welcome everyone to Solomontown Primary School for 2023. I am very excited to be back after my year away at another school. I feel there is no place like Solly, as it has been wonderful to reconnect with our students, staff and families as well as meeting new staff, students and their families.

Our School Captains and House Captains have been selected and are now confidently operating in their various roles which is great to see.

We have also carried out the selection process for our Student Action Team (SAT) representatives for 2023 which includes 2 students from every class. For those who are new to our school, SAT is a group of students who address various issues that affect the wellbeing of our school community. Their role is to raise the profile of students, empowering them to influence and facilitate effective change, enhancing life and wellbeing at school. Changes made to secure the collaboration and wellbeing of all students are implemented based upon regular discussions from our SAT representatives.

To begin our journey of enhancing the wellbeing of our school, we will implement a SAT induction session for our representatives on Thursday whereby we will play some getting to know you games with the view of meeting and connecting with other reps from Foundation to Year 6. We will discuss group expectations, as well as unpack what SAT encompasses including the various roles and responsibilities of being a SAT rep.

SAT reps will have time to share their ideas around how they think we can enhance the wellbeing of our school. These ideas will then form the foundation of our planning for 2023. I am very excited to be in a position where I can give our students a voice and hear what they have to say.

We have invited a guest speaker (our own Mr Jeffries) to talk to students about his leadership journey. Students will then have time to reflect and identify what reignited with them from Mr Jeffries talk and have the opportunity to ask questions. I feel this will be a powerful time whereby students have an opportunity to really understand what leadership entails both the difficulties and the benefits.

We will end our session with some casual fellowship and lots of pizza. Student Action Team reps will be given their badges at Assembly on Friday.

Cheers
